

MORNING APPEAL.

SUNDAY.....NOVEMBER 24

DEFEAT CONGRESSMAN REED.

The following from the Austin Reville has the correct ring: If the West is in earnest to fight over and win a victory for silver, dispendent since 1873, when Sherman and his gang knocked the pins from under its standard, our Representatives should begin at once to "carry war into Africa," or the enemy's camp. The first blow that should be struck should be aimed at Reed of Maine, a candidate for the Speaker of the House, and it must be a knock out blow, or else the silver cause will suffer an undesirable check. Reed is pronounced a gold bug of the most contemptible type, a champion for money lenders, brokers of Wall street and National banks, a twin dissembler with Sherman, who has never ceased his efforts to down the white metal—therefore all loyal silver men must defeat him for the position.

We cannot afford to allow Reed, as Speaker of the House the privilege of appointing the committees on Coinage and Currency, as his selection would surely result in giving a majority on the committees against silver, then the course to pursue is plain and that is, overwhelm them with defeat and appoint a pledged silver man. Show Reed and the rest of the monometalists that defeat is their retribution, when they aspire to places of distinction, and that it is the friends and champions of silver that do the crushing. What is the use for any Congressman to take a stand for silver, when he is to be slaughtered by the Wall street influence and the dupes, who profess to be silver men. We say reward them for their expressions of fealty, we say combine and play cunning against cunning, do almost anything, but above all sit down on these modern vampires, who not content with the blood of their poor victims, must eat the flesh also and rob them of all sustenance. All the Western Representatives should be instructed by their Constituents to vote against Reed for the Speakership first, last and all the time. There never was a better opportunity to rush onward with silver's standard, when the metal is still struggling to burst the bands of shackles, and if it is failure this time, it is reverses for years to come. What would we advise? It is this. Gather around Representative Cannon, gird his loins with the strength of unanimous support, carry him to the Speaker's chair, and make it legal by the majority of the votes. What are his qualifications? Many, but the most important, he is a friend of silver, found, true and loyal, and oft tried by battles in its cause. He is a Western man, a second great cause for his election.—Bulletin.

It is reported that the Prince of Wales will have the Cavendish-street scandal investigated, and, if necessary, publicly exposed. Prince Hal went back on Falstaff and his boon companions. This may be the turning point with Albert Edward, but shall there be no more cakes and ale because he has grown virtuous?

The defense in the Cronin trial is quite unique. They tried to show that the blood stains on the floor of the cottage were bullock's blood. Microscopic experts swore that they were human blood. This did not throw the defense down at all; now they claim that somebody had a prize fight there several months ago, hence the stains.

The editor of the Grass Valley Tidings is evidently an appreciative reader of the metropolitan press. He remarks:

San Francisco editors are telling what they don't know on the subject of silver coinage. Most of the editorials are necessarily quite long.

Nevada loses a strip of land three quarters of a mile wide and about 200 long by the new survey. We never did care much for that strip any how.

It would take a good trainer to get Jackson in the "pink of condition" without skinning him.

Bred in the Bone.

Yesterday afternoon at the Panorama several hundred children broke into a round of applause when the picture of Marshall, the discoverer of gold in California, was thrown on the canvas. The children of the Coast understand that money makes the mare go and realize the importance of Marshall's discovery as well as anybody.

Billy Brooks, the old Sacramento type was in the city yesterday and probably is today. He was full as a tick inside of an hour after reaching this city and when he came into the APPEAL office, his breath knocked down four lengths of stove pipe. Brooks is bound for the Comstock.

It costs Placerville hunters $30 apiece to kill does.
